

Maximising the Potential of Coaching

Our coaching workshops show you how to use coaching in ways which makes a difference to both staff learning and pupil learning. Explore with us, a series of practical tools that embed and sustain quality in coaching, tackle common obstacles, connect coaching with school development priorities and help you evaluate impact.

The workshop will:

- Equip you with a good understanding of the rationale and research evidence for developing coaching as an effective CPD approach for improving learning outcomes.
- Consider how to match different levels of coaching to different needs
- Explore and develop practical tools and resources to improve your coaching skills and develop your colleagues' skills in learning from and with you.

This workshop is designed for:

Primary and Secondary Senior leaders with particular interest in CPD

You will learn to:

- Diagnose your skills and develop as a coach or mentor for different situations
 - Use a range of tools and resources which scaffold and support your skill development and those of the professional learner
- Practice your coaching and mentoring skills
 - Plan how to gather and use evidence for formative and summative purposes

Be confident of quality

Our facilitators will:

- Make research and evidence accessible and useful focusing on high leverage strategies
- Provide tools to sustain learning and help staff refine strategies in the light of pupil responses
- Introduce learning in a way that is active, engaging and helps with the collection of evidence about staff learning to support the evaluation of impact
