

Schools as CPD Providers

Are you offering CPD programmes to other schools? This workshop will help you identify high leverage approaches, tools and resources to make sure your training is designed to make an impact on both staff and pupil outcomes.

The workshop will:

- Explore the evidence base regarding effective CPD
- Provide you with an opportunity to evaluate your current programmes
- Consider ways to ensure staff development leads to better learning experiences and outcomes for students.
- Help you plan further development.

This workshop is designed for:

- Primary and Secondary leaders with a responsibility for CPD especially those interested in developing their school and networks as a effective professional learning environments.
- The resources and materials are also suitable for the FE sector

By the end of the day you will:

Be confident about using a range of tools and skills that both develop your CPD provision and help you monitor its effectiveness by:

- Ensuring your CPD encompasses each of the elements proven to be key to benefits to pupils
- Connecting the professional learning of adults with their aspirations for student learning
- Mobilising the power of collaborative adult learning as a tool for deep, rather than surface learning through engaging with evidence from classrooms
- Embedding Assessment for Learning processes into CPD activities
- Using classroom observation more effectively

Be confident of quality

Our facilitators will:

- Make research and evidence accessible and useful focusing on high leverage strategies
- Provide tools to sustain learning and help staff refine strategies in the light of pupil responses
- Introduce learning in a way that is active, engaging and helps with the collection of evidence about staff learning to support the evaluation of impact
